Japan has already had extensive experience with research rockets and is planning to conduct various experiments this year for the launching of its first satellite. This fall a four-stage rocket will be fired into space and since its fourth stage is spherical in shape there is some scientific speculation that it may go into orbit, thus creating an artificial satellite.

Attempting to become the fourth nation after the Soviet Union, the United States and France to launch a satellite with its own rocket, Japan gives great credit to Professor Hideo Itokawa as its pioneer in the space technology.

From the end of World War II until 1954, the Occupation Forces prohibited Japan from engaging in the study and production of aircraft and rockets. However, as soon as the restriction was lifted Professor Itokawa of Tokyo University's Institute of Space and Aeronautical Science, plunged into his research on the development of rockets and today is considered the nation's foremost authority on the subject.

It was he who produced the pencil rocket and conducted public experiments with it in April, 1955, in the suburbs of Tokyo.

In addition to the late start, Japan has been faced with a problem of suitable launching sites. When the pencil rocket was followed by a "baby" rocket, launchings were made from Michikawa Beach, facing the Sea of Japan in Akita Prefecture. When larger and more powerful rockets were developed it aroused fears that they might soar across the Sea and land in either the Soviet Union or Mainland China.

A new launching range was located in Kagoshima Prefecture on the southern tip of Kyushu, Japan's

Other unique services created by JAL include the serving of steaming hot towels since adopted by other companies. These innovations, the basis of the time-honoured JAL slogan "step aboard and you're in Japan," proved to be highly popular with passengers; and JAL was an immediate success.

THE CNE'S BUNDLE OF STACCATO RHYTHMS

Kiyoko Ito, Newest Christy Minstrel First Japanese On Big Time Folk Circuit

By MEL TSUJI

TORONTO.—For Kiyoko Ito, what a surprise, and no wonder, she's with the New Christy Minstrels, the first foreigner, let alone the first Japanese to make it big with a group such as the Minstrels.

Surprise is an understatement. Before joining the group Kiyo was singing folk songs on TV in Japan. And if you know Japan, folk is not that popular yet. Together with the fact that girls going into show business in Japan are frowned upon, joining an internationally known group such as the Minstrels was beyond her wildest dreams.

After graduating from high school her parents wanted her to go to a preparatory school. Yes, the kind where girls learn to cook and sew, to prepare themselves for nuptials. But Kiyo having a fervent desire to sing, started on the road to show business.

At this time singing she held latent. "I didn't think my voice was good enough". "But when I was taking ballet, I sprained achilles tendon and that was ballet for awhile. I loved dancing but I couldn't do anything for time being. I got guitar and started playing and found my voice suited to folk songs."

Her voice is unlike the typical Japanese voice. Hers is foggy, with a silky texture. Untypically low for a Japanese girl and for a girl of her size. "I'm 5 ft. 1 inch."

Kiyo got so proficient with American folk songs she eventually appeared in movies and TV. The TV show was a Sunday variety show, an Ed Sullivan type. But her first love is the stage. "I love the stage it is so exciting."

It was while a regular on this TV show that she got a chance to audition with the Minstrels. The group didn't anticipate changing but as they do everywhere they go, they audition to be ready for changes and emergencies. The manager auditions up to 8,000 people a year just to anticipate changes.

Kiyo auditioned with 300 other performers and the owners were so enchanted with her, they took her along inspite of having a full troupe.

Then 3 months ago, 2 girls left and Kiyo was thrust upon the gilded stage with just 3 days intensive English training at Berlitz and having to learn the Minstrels songs by memory since she doesn't fully understand the word as yet.

Seeing the performance you wouldn't know it. Driving her 101 lbs into the Minstrel crowd-rousing act, she vibrates the audience with her dark flashing eyes and the staccato rhythms of her tambourine. She doesn't do solos yet, the language barrier makes her nervous, but if ability has anything to say, she will in the near future.

She actually did a solo when she first joined the group, it was a Japanese number, complete with kimono, fan and zori. But it was so awkward to change they abandoned it.

The Minstrels might be in for a change. Kiyo knows some beautiful Japanese folk songs. Not the variety with the koto and the twanging noise in the background. But genuinely beautiful ballads, with melodies foreign to Canadians but universally exciting.

Mike Settle, the groups leader, is now in the process of integrating one of her songs in the act. We may be witnessing a Japanese influence on music of some sorts. Who knows maybe like the London sound.

How does Kiyo influence the group? Peter Morse, the ex-R&B singer and blues singer with the Minstrels, says, "in the history of the group there has never been a person so well liked." Kenny Rogers, the bass player helps her when she gets into difficulty, "we can communicate eh Kiyo", winking his eye. "Its just that I've learned to talk in broken English.

For the future? Kiyo wants eventually to go back to Japan and enter a movie career. She doesn't like show business but loves to sing so much, she tolerates it.

Next engagement is in San Francisco where she will have a reunion with her brother, studying at UCLA, and some girl friends coming to meet her from Japan.

Japanese Domestics Exploited

Mr. T. Umezuki

The New Canadian

Dear Mr. Umezuki:

In the New Canadian of Aug. 27, I notice you have been in consultation with officials of the Immigration Dept. in Tokyo.

I am writing to ask if in your talks with them, you will take up the matter of women who come to Canada for domestic work.

These girls, as you doubtless realize, are easy to exploit. The reason this happens is they come to Canada without clear-enough contracts. It is dangerous for them to come relying only on verbal promises, as vague as, "We will treat you as a member of the family."

My hope is that no girl or woman would come unless she had a written contract covering such points as salary, travel expenses, hours and type of work, medical insurance and so on.

To work in a Canadian family can be a good positive experience for a Japanese girl. But it can also be a disappointing and frustrating.

Sincerely yours
Constance Chappel

Dear Miss Chappell

I have discussed this matter with two officials from Japan along with other matters pertaining to Japanese immigrants coming to Canada.

They too, show a great concern for the well-being of these domestic workers. And in the course of our talk, I was assured that action would be taken on behalf of the domestics and other Japanese immigrants as well.

It's nice to know some people are concerned.

Yours truly
T. Umezuki

Japan works hard for success of 1972 winter Olympic games at Hokkaido

By LESLIE NAKASHIMA

TOKYO. — Members of the 1972 Winter Olympic Games Organizing Committee are determined to make the games at Sapporo, Hokkaido, a brilliant success.

Kogoro Uemura, vice president of the Federation of Economic Organization who was appointed by the government as chairman of the OCC, asked the cooperation of all circles concerned in putting over the first Olympic Winter Games to be held in Asia.

"In scope and events, the Winter Olympic Games are on a smaller scale but we would like to make the 1964 Tokyo Olympic Summer Games, which received overwhelming praise in Japan and abroad, as our model and make the Sapporo Olympics a brilliant meet," Uemura said. "In order to do so, we request the cooperation of all organizations."

Suggestions

Uemura asked for unreserved suggestions to assure that the Winter Olympics at Sapporo on the northernmost island of Japan will be most successful.

Daigoro Yasukawa, who was chairman of the Tokyo Olympic Games Organizing Committee, said there was no doubt about the success of the Sapporo Olympic Games provided they received the same enthusiastic support as the Tokyo Olympics.

Shojiro Kawashima, vice president of the ruling Liberal Democratic Party, pledged his party's support. And that means government support through 1972 because it appears unlikely that the party will lose majority control in any general elections in the unforeseen future.

Support of Citizens

All citizens of Hokkaido island are behind the 1972 Winter Olympics at Sapporo. There is hard work ahead in making the preparations but there is every indication that the 1972 Winter Games will be one of the most successful yet held.

Sapporo was originally given the right to hold the 1940 Olympic Winter Games along with the 1940 Olympic Summer Games to Tokyo. But they were both abandoned because Japanese militarists started hostilities in China.

Coach impressed with BB in Japan

Pete Newell, athletic director of the Univ. of California at Berkeley, returned last week from a trip to Japan and was the subject of a following article by Bucky Walter in the San Francisco Examiner:

Newell is pleased—and obviously proud—of the vast strides the Japanese have made in basketball in the five years he has helped with summer instructional programs.

The Univ. of California athletic director admits that he "gets a kick" out of returning to his first love, coaching, if even for several weeks a year.

According to Newell, the Japanese now are formidable in basketball primarily because of their physical growth and because "we have taught them the joy of making the game fun.

"Through 1959, the Japanese has not won a single Olympic basketball game," reminds Newell. "They were terribly embarrassed.

"They were fearful they would continue to be patsies. But that's all radically changed."

The Japanese won five games in the 1960 Olympics and narrowly lost to the Russians only because, understandably, they could not handle 7 ft. 4 in. Jan Kremenah, who scored 28 points.

Last year, the Japanese cagers captured the Asian Games and defeated the perennial champions from the Philippines.

"When I first helped their national team," says Newell, "the players were small, only a very few six feet tall. Now they are young, strong kids who stretch to 6-4 and 6-5.

"There are several reasons for the spurt in height. One is that there is more milk and protein in their diet. Another is that the 'Westernization' of the nation has helped develop youngsters' legs. Mothers used to carry their babies strapped on their backs. Now the kids toddle as do our own and that contributes to growth of their legs."

According to Newell, Japanese basketball also has improved by scrapping regimentation.

"Happily, I was able to 'sell' them on the premise that a little freelance fun and some intelligent asking 'why?' would produce relaxation so necessary in making things work on the court.

"At first, we had a communication problem. The Japanese, by nature shy and obliging, would not confess to not understanding instructions. But they've jumped that hurdle."

Newell is extremely proud that the Japanese cagers are fundamentally sound on defense, "as strong in this sphere as anybody, anywhere."

"The Japanese inherently are a very polite race," he counsels. "You have to be a little mean, even hate a little, to be good on defense. Now they won't let you knock them about."

While Newell does not suggest the Japanese are in a class with the American players, he offers. "They'll give most nations a strong argument right now. In a decade, they'll close the gap markedly because they have such great dedication."

『はい、とんだ厄病神に見込まれまして、嫁ぎ事をしておりますので。風さまのお力でなんとか話をつけていただければと存じ、忠太に使に立ってもらったようなわけでございましてな』

『それは六年ばかり前、まだ先代の生前に名が抜いてございます』

『大河原は十両出したら、うけとらなかったそうだねえ』

『あちらさまは傳吉さんにたのまれてきて、ぜひ千両出してやってくれというのですが、それはどうも本当とは思えませんので、こちらは厄拂いのつもりで、主人とも相談しまして十両出しました。あちらさまはこんな端金では帰れない、主人を出せといって坐りこんでいるのでございます』

『よろしい、大番頭さんの話はわかった。わしが口をきいて見ることにするが、その前に一度お浦さまに逢っておきたいな。當家の責任者に無断で、わしが勝手な口をきくわけにも行くまい』

といって、自分からお浦様家の居間の杉戸の前へ立って行ったようだ。

『旦那、お浦さまに逢うのは、ちょいと難しいかも知れやせんぜ。なにしろつむじがだいぶ曲っているお局さまでござんすからねえ』

大番頭の顔色を見ていた忠義は、急に心細そうにそんなことをいい出す。

『しかしなあ親友、お局さまの氣位だけじゃ大河原は追っ拂えない。そんな我ままをいうんなら、自分でじかに店へ出て見るほうがいいんだ』

『しっ、聲が大きいや旦那』

間もなく大番頭が戻ってきて、

『風さま、主人はあちらでお目にかかりたいそうです。どうぞおいでになっていただきます』

沿海州の旅（七）

河を北上しつづけると、今まではんのちょっぴり、ニューブランズウイック州の主要農産物であるポテートをみて、これだけのものか、と淡い失望を抱いたのは誤りであることがわかった。

どこまでいっても青い水の流れがつづく河の両側、ゆるやかな丘々に見渡すかぎりのポテート畑が展開しいま一面白い花ざかり。そして道路わきにポテートを紙袋にいれて賣っている。大袋を持ち歸ろうという妻の家計計算よりも、なぜこの流れで釣りをしないのかという疑が頭をはなれず、どう考えても釣り水だとのカンが反すうされて仕様がなかった。

世界一のポテート生産地であり、出荷地である。

と大きなサインが出てきた。そしてここに前記した世界最長のカバード・ブリッジをみるのである。

シルクロードの旅

『アメリカがいま北と南とに分れて戦争しているのは本當か』ヘイラバードの二日目の朝、部落の入口から放牧に出ていく羊の群れを見ていた私たちに、部落民の一人が、こう思いがけない質問をあびせてきた。

こんなやりとりの末、彼は首をひねりながら、私たちのそばを離れた。

彼の難問の原因は、彼がもっているラジオのニュースの聞きちがいにあった。

せると、三年前まで地主に組みしかれていたこの部落は、トランジスタラジオがくる前は、だれも山の向うに何があるか知らない生活だった。

一八%の増賃確約を得て 鐵道は二日より運轉再開

一週間におよんだカナダ全國的な鐵道ストライキは臨時國會が最低一八%増賃(二年間に)を與える法案を可決し總督の認可を得て立法化されたことにより、ストライカーの大部分はすでに職場に戻り、貨物、客車とも二日早朝から運轉を再開した。

【オタワ】全國的鐵道ストライキに發展する臨時國會でピアソン首相は八%一時増賃オファアを提案したが、野黨側と勞組側から猛々非難攻撃され、かかる子供だまし的な増賃で十一万八千の鐵道從業員が職場に戻ると考えるのは愚の骨頂だとわめき立て、三十一日夜半まで議會は騷然となって政府提出法案は行き詰まりの状態となった。

保守黨主ディフエンベーカー氏は直ちに増賃修正を提出して採決を迫った結果自由黨に社信黨と獨立が加勢、一三八票對一〇三票で否決されたが、政府側は三度も國會をひらき、たとえ原案が通過するとしても、ストライカーの大部分が復職する形勢はないと判断し、ピアソン首相は調停局が進言してきた二年間一八%増賃を保証する修正を加えると發表するまでに大幅な譲歩を示した。

國內大會社が資材不足のため

すでに一週間におよんでいる全國的鐵道ストライキのため國內の重要産業は資材不足を告げ、六千人以上が各工場から仕事を失っており、ストが來週まで持ち越されるとすれば、失職者は一挙に一万人に達するだろうとみられている。

昨年度カナダ經由で米國訪問

カナダを通って米國に入った外國人のうち、いちばん多いのは英國人で三万八千人、次はドイツ、メキシコ人となっている。日本人も千五百人がカナダ經由で訪米している。これら外國人の約六万四千人は米加國境を自動車で通過したもので、デトロイトで船で渡ったものもかなりあったという。

毒舌で有名な老婦人が ビーシー首相に喰下る

【晩市】來る十二日のビーシー州總選擧に興をそえる老婦人新聞編集者が話題となっている。ブリッジ・リバー・リルエット週刊紙のムレー夫人がその人で、首相、大臣もこの婦人の毒舌の前には歯が立たないほどに有名。

脱走兵増す

【サイゴン】南ベトナムの武裝軍隊七十万五千人のうち、脱走兵は昨年より二〇%も上回るとのことで、今年六ヵ月間に合計六万七千人の脱走兵を出している。キィ首相は今後嚴罰に處するという新規約を發令したので、脱走兵は減少するであろうと期待している。

英機が燒失

【ユーゴ、ルブリアナ】カナダ生れの新聞王、トムソン卿が所有するブリタニア航空會社の旅客機は一日早朝當地空港に到着のさい火災を起し、九十人の死者を出した。百十人の英國人觀光客をのせた同機の遭難で生存者は二十七人。

着陸のさいの出來事で八十名の乗客は即死、十名は病院に運ばれる途中と病院で死亡したもので、同航空會社としては初の遭難事故である。一行はユーゴ國を觀光するため英國を出發したもの。

モンゴルの總意

【東京時事通信】[illegible]國際議會理事長としてモンゴル議會團一行に同行していた長谷川自民黨廣報委員長は三十日午後歸國、モンゴルとの關係について次のように語った。

今回のモンゴル要人との會談で、モンゴルとの國交回復の話が進んでいることとが確認できた。モンゴルの首相、第一副首相、議長らは時期はともかくとして出來るだけ早い機會に日本との國交を回復することが、モンゴル國民の總意であるとはっきり述べていた。

【國連】予期された通り、ウタント國連事務總長は一日、第二期(五年間)の國連事務總長をつとめる意思のないことを明らかにした。

ウタント事務總長は十一月三日で任期を滿了すると同時にその地位から退く決意であることを國連加盟國に通告、また安保理に後任者を見出すよう伝えた。

ウタント事務總長はベトナム戦爭が世界大戦を誘導すること、國連運營資金問題、中共加盟問題等々をあげ、とくにベトナム戦の成行きを心痛していることを再出馬しない理由の一つにあげている。

すべて順調に進行中

【オタワ】——すべては順調に進行——と万國博の工事についてクインター通商大臣が今週發表した。セント・ヘレン島の万國博敷地九八六エーカーは各國のパビリオンや展示館で余裕なくふさがり、目下二百以上の工事がスケデュール通り進行、五千人以上の勞働者が各種の工事についているといっており『すでにあるところでは、展示品の運び入れをやっている』ことを明らかにした。

Cumberland Japanese Restoration Project

TORONTO. — The Cumberland Japanese Cemetery Restoration Committee met on August 24 to discuss proposals contained in a reply from the Rev. Kyojo Ikuta of the Vancouver Buddhist Church. The Committee had written to extend cooperation to the church and the Vancouver JCCA, which have together undertaken the restoration project.

It was agreed that restoration be proceeded with along the following lines:

1. Fund raising objective: $1,200.

2. Restoration will consist in arranging salvaged headstones, possibly in 2-tiered effect, around the existing large monument for the victims of the coal mine disaster. Entire structure will be set in concrete and surrounded with chain enclosure.

3. Restoration work will be assigned to a Courtenay contractor through the cooperation of the Courtenay Kiwanis Club. Visits to supervise work will be made by representatives of the Vancouver Buddhist Church or JCCA.

4. A plaque will be affixed to the structure, bearing a suitable "In Memoriam" inscription in Japanese and in English.

5. Contributions to the fund will be accepted by the Treasurer, Mr. S. Tomihiro, 84 Cosburn Ave., Toronto 6, up to October 15, 1966. Letters explaining the project in detail are being miled to former Comox District residents living in Toronto area.

Vancouver Issei Gillnetter killed in accident as beached ship explodes

According to reports, Nakatsu had beached his gillnetter Miss Rosalind beside Good Hope cannery at Rivers Inlet to remove some fish net that had become entangled in his propeller.

He went ashore for a steam bath and when he returned to the vessel, she was listing about 10 degrees as a result of the dropping tide.

Police state that Nakatsu went aboard and apparently lit a match, touching off the explosion. "We believe gasoline from the boat's tanks leaked out into the hold as the vessel listed," an officer stated.

The blast tore a hole in the Miss Rosalind's bow and the resulting fire burned her to the waterline.

Personnel at the Good Hope camp tried to reach Nakatsu but heat and flames made rescue impossible.

Nakatsu joined the United Fisherman and Allied Workers Union in 1962 but he was a fisherman before the war, fishing for some time in the Skeena area.

Taikichi Nakatsu was born in 1906 in Mionoura in the Wakayama Prefecture of Southern Japan. He leaves only his wife Yoshiko at their home in Vancouver. They have no children.

Funeral services were held August 10 in Vancouver.

southernmost island, in 1962. The hills facing the ocean were levelled and the project was completed in the spring of 1964 with facilities to launch Kappa and Lambda rockets which are capable of probing 1,000 miles above the earth.

The Kagoshima Space Centre which covers an area of 510,000 square meters, is equipped with control, telemetry, radar and optical tracking centres. It will be the launching site for the Mu rockets with the scientific satellites.

But looking ahead to the applications satellite in 1970, Japan has already decided to construct another launching station on the Takezaki coast of Tanegashima Island, south of Kagoshima City in the Pacific Ocean. It was here, in 1543, that a Portugese sailor was shipwrecked and introduced the first firearms to Japan.

Japan asked to Join Vietnam Peace Mission

TOKYO. — The leaders of the Association of Southeast Asia (ASA) countries sent a diplomatic note to Japan in what is believed to be an attempt to invite Japan to join their peacemaking efforts in Viet Nam.

Asahi Shimbun said Japanese Foreign Minister Etsusaburo Shiina received a cable signed by Thai Foreign Minister Thanat Khoman, Philippine Foreign Secretary Marcisco Ramos and Malaysian Deputy Premier Tun Abdul Razak.

The contents of the note were not disclosed, but Asahi said well informed sources at the Foreign Ministry believed it contained an invitation to the ASA-sponsored peace conference.

The ASA Foreign Ministers met last week in Bangkok and called for "Asian initiative to bring about consultations among parties involved in the Viet Nam War."

According to Asahi, the Thai minister handed the note to the Japanese envoy in Bangkok.

Presenting BBQ shishke-rat... what!

TOKYO.—Rats are fit to be eaten—it's just that humans don't have the habit

This is the opinion of Dr. Kaname Okada, former head of the National Science Museum, who commented recently on a report from India that the people in the state of Uttar Pradesh were advised to eat rat meat.

A foreign dispatch said Genda Singh, the minister of the northern Indian state of Uttar Pradesh, had advised the eating of rat meat which he claimed was rich in protein. He told the state legislative assembly in Lucknow that doctors were of the opinion that rats could be used as food as they were protein rich. He maintained that rat meat was in no way inferior to other types of meat.

Supporting this view, Dr. Okada said rats could be eaten. "Rats are mammals so they can be eaten. It's just that humans have not been familiarized with rat meat as food."

Dr. Okada advised removing the intestines of rats for people with queasy stomachs.

Japanese Scopes best for the money

Japanese electronic microscopes are creating excitement in Canadian scientific circles. Interest in these imported machines started in 1965 when the University of Saskatchewan's Regina Campus purchased the city's first electron microscope—an instrument that outshines the student's ordinary $200 microscope in cost, size and ability.

"It's about the biggest machine going," reports Dr. R. Y. Zacharuk, head of the campus biology department. Valued at $38,000, the office-desk sized instrument is thousands of times more powerful than the ordinary microscope. It was financed through grants to Dr. Zacharuk, for his research work on nerve structure and sense organs.

Elsewhere in Canada electron microscopes are also used extensively. At Queen's University the research staff uses them in biology, pathology, and anatomy departments. Dr. Good, Chairman of the university biology department, has had one for about 3 years for work on cancer and virus cells, fungus spores and insect cell structure. Japanese electron microscopes range from $5,000 to $40,000, — Dr. Good's model costs $16,000 and was jointly sponsored by the National Research Council and the university. Presently there are 8 electron microscopes at the university. Although the instrument is manufactured in Germany, Holland, Britain, United States and Russia, Dr. Good favours the Japanese brand. "We want the best we can get with limited funds. The Japanese electron microscope is of fine quality and the price is the best on the competitive market."
